

Portal will boost NRIs' investment, says Yogi

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Lucknow: Chief minister Yogi Adityanath launched an integrated web portal of the NRI department on Monday. He said that the portal will help in providing jobs, link NRIs with their roots and also help in resolving any issues.

The department will compile data of persons from UP who are working abroad and upload on this portal so that if they ever face any problem the state would extend full help to them. The CM said that under the Invest UP programme, the portal will also bring in investment into the state and allow NRIs to partner in the state's growth story, along with opening up the endless potential of UP's tourism sector.

"Maximum people who have gone abroad in search of jobs are from UP. They face many problems like land disputes, harassment of family in their native towns and villages, their return to the country in times of crisis, harassment at work in the foreign country, etc. The portal will help address these problems based on online complaints," the CM said.
